Taking a full two-day course (excluding Level III exams and Challenge Exams), if you fail on the first attempt of the exam, then a second attempt will be available up until one year from the original exam date. A letter of explanation will also be mailed.
(For Level III Challenge Exams), if you do not pass the exam, then you will need to register for another challenge exam at full cost. A letter of explanation will also be mailed.
Non-Level III challenge exams will require the registration of a full two-day course upon failing the initial first attempt. A letter of explanation will also be mailed.
If a prerequisite(s) is required for the exam(s) taken, IMSA staff will verify completion and send a printed certificate(s) and card via mail once verified. It will also be available online from your IMSA account.
In the event a prerequisite(s) is not met, a letter of explanation will be mailed.
Please note that it can take up to 30 minutes for completed online courses information to appear.

Mandatory Requirements for Exam Only Students

Donna Montes posted on Apr 21, 2023 5:44 AM • Edited

In order for you to access your exam once your class has ended you must complete one (1) condition requirement. From your “Course Home Page” scroll down to the “Calendar” then you will see “Upcoming Events” and right under you will see “2023 IMSA Work Zone Equivalent” requirement click the title “2023 IMSA Work Zone Equivalent” and it will take you to a video please click and listen to the entire video.

Once this condition requirement is completed you will be able to access your exam. If this one condition requirement is not completed, you will not be able to access your exam.

Integrity Advocate Proctoring System ▼

Posted by Anonymous User •  Edited

- Here is a learner resource page which answers to frequently asked questions about Integrity Advocate and provides a demo link for anyone that wishes to give the system a try before taking the certification exam.

<https://www.integrityadvocate.com/what-to-expect/imsa>

- Proctored Exam Integrity Policies & Procedures – If any of the list items stated below are violated it is an automatic “Fail”
 - You MUST ONLY USE ONE FULL SCREEN during the duration of the exam.
 - You must NOT use Open Book/Notes for the duration of the exam.
 - You must remain in view of the camera with full attention on the single camera screen at all times for the duration of the exam.
 - You may not receive help from or communicate with other people for the duration of the exam.
 - You may not use an electronic device (i.e., ear buds, phone, tablet, headphones, or headphones with microphone) for the duration of the exam. (Exams are multiple choice not audio)
 - You must submit a clear, well-lit image of yourself taken by your camera.
 - You must submit a clear, easily read image of your driver’s license or government-issued photo ID.
 - You must ensure the name on your government-issued photo ID matches the name on your account.
 - You must not attempt to circumvent or cheat the system.
 - You must remain engaged with the session for the duration of the exam.

Should you Fail Integrity Advocate because you violated one of rules, you will need to contact the Section once you receive the failure letter.
